

Articulating clamp system

Articulating clamp features:

- Provides a rigid connection form primate chair to implanted headpost.
- Has the necessary degrees of freedom to allow connection at any position and angle.
- All components have the option to be engraved with a scale so that configurations can be reproduced.